

Wigner Resolution from Action Capacity of the State

Brian S. Mulloy*
(Dated: May 13, 2026)

A single uncertainty-respecting convolution kernel, matched to a state's covariance and saturating the quantum of action, simultaneously resolves Wigner negativity, semiclassical caustics, and Schrödinger nodes.

* bmulloy@umich.edu

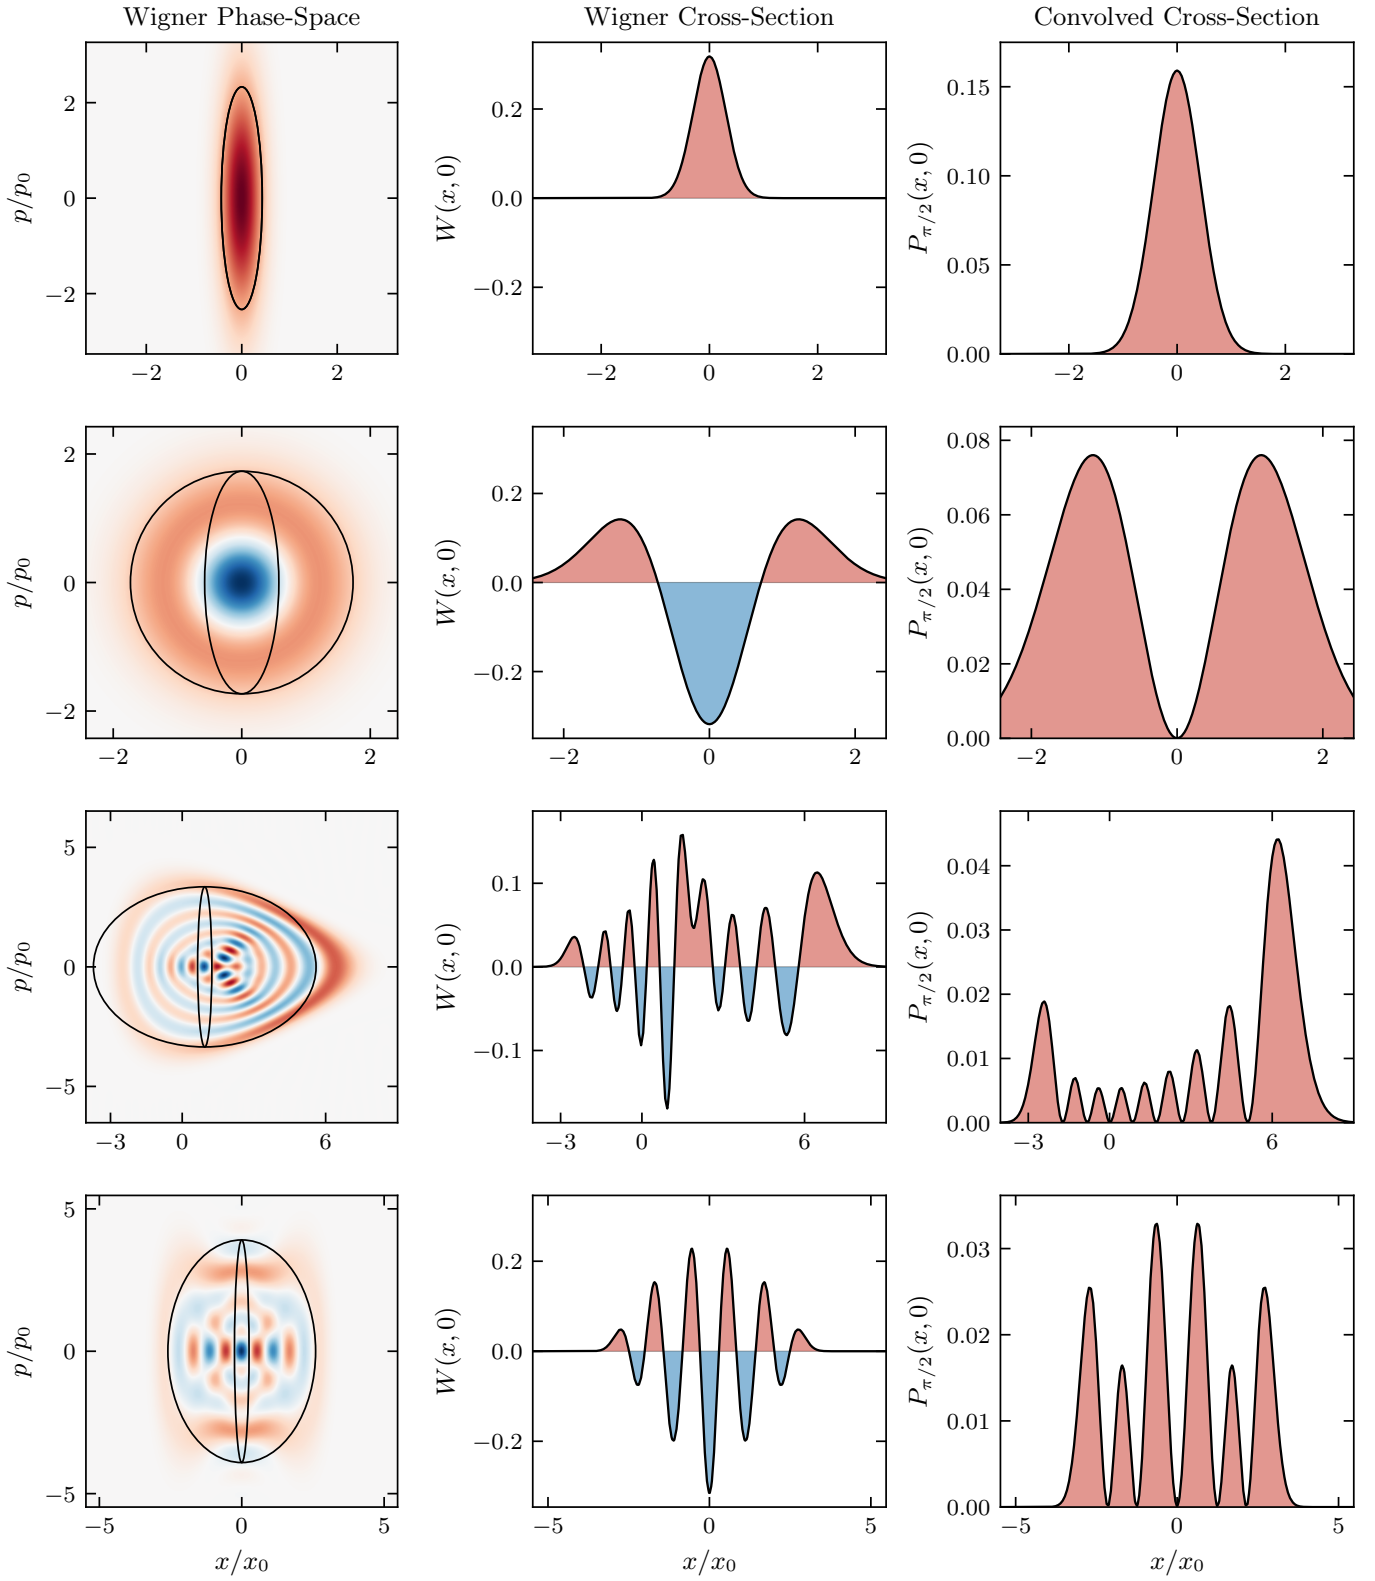

FIG. 1. Squeezed vacuum ($r = 0.5$), harmonic oscillator $n = 1$, Morse $n = 8$, and double-well $n = 5$.